Satans' big dream in order to succeed in his quest for his version of Utopia

20.11.21

Remember. These messages could never have been born or revealed if Christ had not come to earth and succeeded in His mission and sacrificed Himself to every single human.

...hence it is even more senseless as Satan would suggest, that all of heaven including Christ would betray the human race, and join his plans and goals of creating his Satanic version of heaven, hell.

After everything that both the Father and the Son endured for the sake of creation. And that no creation should have to suffer forever, which would be the case if Satan's plan of his version of Utopia should succeed. Through the religion of modern spiritualism. Because that would mean that they both would have to become more evil than Satan himself, and let the virus of sin run rampant and pollute the entire Universe God created.

So first God create the Universe, intending it for good and for His own law of everlasting love, peace joy, wisdom and justice to rule the Universe. The highest angel and the highest of mankind fell into sin, and the virus of sin started spreading and polluting what God had created, even jeopardizing heaven itself, hence he was cast out and down to this earth. The Son of God had to sacrifice himself in order to redeem the race and save the earth. Then 2000 years later both the Father and the Son would suddenly change their mind and regret everything they fought for, everything they went through? For the sake of the lusts of Satan, of the lower, of the law and spirit of 666, the law of death, of sin? Well, that would be Satan's big dream and goal in order to succeed.

So, yes, Satan would have had to cast God and Christ further down than himself. That would be to think he could deceive and betray the Father, the Son and all the hosts of angels and unfallen worlds. And hold them captive in sin and in bondage to him for eternity. He would think that he and his plans are smarter than the plans of the Father and the Son. So here we see his extreme arrogance and extreme pride reaching a maximum level. Thinking he is better than God and his kingdom better than God Himself.

And those who refuse to advance and get stuck in the lower, you glorify the angel and lord of the lower, of the fallen. And claim allegiance to him, while your lips utter that you serve the Highest God. No, not if you reject the highest truth available for this time. You are still in bondage to sin and Satan.

"They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness."
